

ILS Data Management Software

Our patented wireless data log helps the operator track the usage of the night vision devices. Operator can –

- Identify the user of the night vision device
- Identify the technician responsible for servicing goggles
- Identify exposure of tubes to high light
- Identify operation time of each tube

The software can be used but is not limited to –

- Training purposes
- Keeping track of the night vision goggles
- Prevent tampering of the device and tubes

 Wireless Data Log

User Logbook